By WALTER M. BARRETT

Lake Tahoe Region is taking on a festive air once more as touring vacationists begin their annual influx to the famous resort area. Virtually all resorts on the lake are opened and while the season is still young, hundreds are finding the beauties and numerous advantages of the lake district to their full satisfaction. Building activities which began early this spring are indicative of the growing popularity of the region. Not only are the established resorts rebuilding, altering and making extensive improvements, but new business places are being erected and scores of new homes are springing up throughout the community. Whether the San Francisco Fair will be a help or hindrance to the region this season is a matter for conjecture, but, regardless, the alert businessmen of Lake Tahoe are going forward with plans for a bigger and better year and every indication points to a fulfillment of their anticipation.

Although plans for the immediate erection of the new Veterans' Memorial building have been temporarily halted by the lack of funds to meet the bids of contractors, the board of supervisors are endeavoring to find a means of proceeding with the work this summer. They have boosted the limit set previously to a sum which should, if judiciously spent, give Truckee a fine building and while we naturally want the best of all things, we should be appreciative of this attitude, but at the same time insist upon all that is due. Above all things, full cooperation between the American Legion, the board of supervisors and the community is necessary if best results are to be realized and the building to become a reality.

One of our customers told us something the other day which we should have been telling the customer, but which we appreciated the more because of the way it was told. Lack of advertising, he said, is like winking at pretty girl in the dark. You know what you are doing but she doesn't. This bit of truth, we were told, came over the radio, but even at that it was good!

Meeks Bay

By Mrs. Lee Garner

Nomad II with Jack Hale as captain leaves Rubicon Rock daily for around the lake trips. Later in the season the boat will stop at all main resorts.

Mrs. Charles Heller was appointed degree staff captain of Pythian Sisters. She will organize a team and will entertain team members at her home on Meeks Bay tomorrow, June 16.

Little Lois Deimel, who has spent the last two summers with the Lee Garners, arrived here Sunday. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Louis Deimel Washburn, who is the house guest of the Garners.

Twenty-seven members and guests of the Tahoe Women's Club gathered at the club house for a desert bridge Tuesday afternoon honoring outgoing president Mrs. H. H. Worden and incoming president Mrs. Nora Hevell. Mrs. Worden and Mrs. W. A. Simmons, outgoing vice presidents, were presented with gifts. Auction and contract were the diversion of the afternoon. Miss Mary Pronzato won high in contract, Mrs. Nina Rogers second and Miss Alice Brown consolation, while Mrs. Lois Deimel Washburn won high in auction, Mrs. Ruth Wathen, second, and Mrs. Lee Garner, consolation.

FIVE ARE INJURED

Five Reno people were injured Wednesday on the Truckee-Tahoe road when a car driven by John Kanter, 64, overturned after skidding on the wet pavement. Mrs. Kanter, 64, her mother, 75, and daughter, 14, and a woman guest, whose name was not immediately learned were taken to Reno for treatment. Traffic Officer Barrick investigated.

John Carswell Expires In San Francisco

Local friends learned of the death of John Carswell in San Francisco during the latter part of last week.

The details of Carswell's death were not given. He was well known here where he lived for a number of years while employed by the Southern Pacific.

His mother, Mrs. Mildred Carswell, and a brother, Herbert, who survive were also Truckee residents.

Aged Man With Load Of Money Is Nabbed Here

Man Claims Bundles of Cash Represent Savings For Lifetime

Officers today are attempting to locate relatives or find information which might clear up the mystery surrounding Joseph McCann, 60, a retired Southern Pacific signalman of Oakland, arrested here yesterday for carrying a concealed weapon and who had in his possession well over $8,500 in currency, $20 in gold coins, a valuable collection of diamonds and odds and ends of old coins and trinkets which almost defied identification.

McCann was arrested after a revolver fell from his pocket in the Lewis store where he was attempting to purchase a bus ticket to Oakland for 73 cents insisting that Mrs. Lewis supply the balance of the cost. His actions led to the belief that he might be dangerous and Traffic Patrolman A. C. Barrick and Deputy Sheriff N. F. Dolley were called and took him into custody.

At the jail where the man's clothes were searched, the currency was found in bundles in an inside pocket and a collection of coins, many of them corroded with age, were found in other pockets to gether with a varied assortment of junk.

BULLETIN

Deputy N. F. Dolley this afternoon received a message from the Oakland police saying that during May and June Joseph McCann drew $7,500 out of his bank together with an unknown amount from a safety deposit box. He has a sister somewhere in Oakland but no other relatives.

Although McCann protested that money represented his life's savings one minute the next he explained it had been put in his keeping by friends and still at another time he said it belonged to his family.

He either could not or would not reveal his home address and in fact avoided all questions.

A check for $67 from the railroad company established his identity, but other details surrounding the huge sum of money and diamonds remained a mystery when McCann was taken to Nevada City by Barrick and turned over to the sheriff.

McCann, small, inoffensive and apparently harmless, protested when the money was taken from him but at no time offered resistance, the officers said.

Many Improvements At Bacchi's Lake Resort Made

Bacchi's Inn was opened by Frank Bacchi on the evening of June 10 with new patrons and friends of previous seasons present at the gala affair.

Extensive remodeling has been done and the new rock terrace, made of native rock, adds greatly to the appearance of the building. A blue and white awning will cover it for the summer.

The new dining room has been decorated in robin egg blue with egg shell white trim. The lounge is of native shellacked wood.

Large flood lights brighten the front of the building, shining over a large section surrounding the popular resort.

NEGRO HELD AFTER FLORISTON MISHAP

Elihu Perkins, Reno Negro, is confined in the Placer County jail at Auburn after taking a car last Saturday morning, assertedly without owner Robert Vail's permission and wrecking it on US Highway 40 near Floriston.

With Perkins was J. B. Hurley, caddy on the Brockway golf course, who was unhurt. Perkins sustained minor cuts and bruises. Officer Gene Walker was notified of the accident and took Perkins, temporarily, to the Truckee jail.

Perkins had been employed by John Heffernan, Ta-Neva-Ho realtor.

Judge George L. Jones was called upon as Nevada City's representative at the large reunion of former Nevada County residents who met in the South Side Park in Sacramento on Sunday under the auspices of the Former Residents of Nevada County Association.

PORK AT FIVE CENTS PER POUND IS TOO CHEAP FOR BELIEF

Believe it or not, fresh leg of pork was selling in Truckee Saturday at five cents a pound.

Sales were short, however, when Andre Armati discovered that the pork came from one of his pigs being fattened on a ranch near Truckee.

Officers C. E. McKeen and N. F. Dolley were notified and arrested Jack Jenkins, 55, and Patrick J. Dayel, 60, who entered pleas of guilty of petit theft and were given 90-day suspended sentences with instructions from Justice of the Peace C. E. Smith to be out of Truckee by 6 p.m. that night and not to return.

The illicit pork merchants said they cut the price down to get ready cash for the purchase of a bottle of wine which they wished to go with a nice roast pork dinner they had planned.

NEW OFFICERS OF LIONS CLUB WILL BE INSTALLED SOON

Newly elected officers of the Truckee Lions Club will be installed at a meeting to be held at the California cafe Wednesday, June 28 with Deputy District Governor L. R. Jefford of Grass Valley as the installing officer.

The officers elected at last night's meeting included Walter M. Barrett, president; William Englehart, Jr., first vice president; R. S. Boren, second vice president; William Englehart, Sr., secretary; C. B. White, treasurer; Elden Tonini, lion tamer; N. F. Dolley, taitwister. New directors are Ben Tonini, A. Pace, J. J. Duffee, Frank Gallienne and Claire Goode.

Minister Is Attending Bay Church Conference

Rev. and Mrs. G. J. E. Keetch are in San Francisco this week attending the ministerial conference of the Methodist Church.

At the conference the three main branches of the church will be united into one to be known as Methodist Church of America. Heretofore there have been the North Methodist, the South Methodist and the Methodist Episcopal churches.

SON IS BORN

Mrs. R. L. Gregory and infant son have returned to their Tahoe home from a Reno hospital where the newest member of the Gregory family made his debut ten days ago. Both mother and son are doing nicely.

Lincoln Ellsworth at Tahoe, Discusses Modern Exploring

Special to the Sierra Sun and Truckee Republican
by A. B. ANDERSON

TAHOE CITY, June 15—Commander Lincoln Ellsworth, veteran Antarctic explorer, is spending a vacation at Brockway. While "resting" the commander climbs about twenty miles of mountain trails regularly.

The famous explorer returned late in March from a trip to the Antarctic where his latest claim for the United States is an area known as "American Highland" on the side of the frozen continent adjacent to the Indian Ocean. To reach this land he left Capetown, South Africa, on October 29, 1938, sailing in the small former fishing vessel, the "Wyat Earp", with eighteen men on board, by way of the Crozet Islands, across the Indian Ocean, to the edge of Antarctica.

The party, after a 65 day crossing over the open sea and through 750 miles of ice flow, made a landing on the frigid shore. Here Ellsworth surveyed and claimed for this country that part of Princess Elizabeth Land which he named "American Highland" which comprises 81,000 square miles.

Commander Ellsworth has no definite future plans at the present but from the look in his eyes when asked if he planned to retire and from his emphatic answer, "It's my life", one realizes that ever restless, roving spirit will never be still. One statement he made interested interviewers very deeply. That was that Antarctic

New Stretches In State's No. 89 Highway Start

State Will Construct Road Near Hobart To Join Highways

Two stretches of construction are now underway on State Route 89 leading from Truckee to Quincy, says the National Automobile Club.

Beginning at a point two miles north of Hobart Mills and continuing for eight miles, the road is to be oiled. When oiling is begun, which is slated to be today, the present road will be barricaded and traffic will be routed over the old road which is somewhat narrow and winding. It is expected that the oiling will be completed and the new highway open to traffic by August 1.

The next stretch is from one-half mile northwest of Calpine to 6.75 miles northwest of Calpine, total of 6.25 miles. Grading is under way, but is on new alignment except for short sections where the new road will cross over or obliterate the present traveled way. At such locations signs will be posted to warn traffic of any hazardous conditions to be encountered. This stretch of work is scheduled for completion about November 15 this year.

Completion of both these jobs will provide splendid highway practically the entire distance from Truckee to Quincy and will materially improve traveling conditions in the Feather River and Truckee-Tahoe regions.

Mrs. Gallinger Named To Succeed Herself

Mrs. Myrtle Gallinger, elementary school teacher at Tahoe City, was named to succeed herself as a member of the Placer County Board of Education by the county supervisors last week.

Hubert Reeve of Newcastle was named at the same time to succeed Anna King, resigned.

Sunday School Picnic Slated For This Week

A Sunday school picnic has been planned for Friday afternoon and evening, June 23. Sack races, horse shoes, fat men's races, baseball, swimming and diving are planned by the committee in charge.

The site for the affair has not yet been determined but a good time is promised to all who attend.

BONDS ARE VOTED TO IMPROVE LAKE WATER SYSTEM

TAHOE CITY, June 15—The Tahoe City Utility District on Monday voted 47 to 6 to issue bonds in the sum of $13,500 for the purpose of purchasing and improving the water system there and, according to C. W. Vernno, president of the board of directors, offers to purchase the bonds, are already coming in.

The bonds will be printed and sold during the next few weeks and work is already started on the improvements planned.

An unusual incident which caused no small amount of wonder occurred election day when the water supply, which had been ample at noon, suddenly exhausted at 5 p.m.

LOG CABIN AT LAKE TO HAVE OPENING SATURDAY EVENING

One of the first resorts at Lake Tahoe to open for the season will be the Log Cabin at Tahoe City under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sutton which will have its formal season's opening this Saturday night. Continuous entertainments with dancing and refreshments will be features of the evening and a good time is promised all attending.

Edmunds Is Selected On Agricultural Fair Board

C. Edmunds, director for Truckee, was named chairman of the Truckee and Eastern Nevada County display at the second annual Nevada County Fair slated for September 29-30 and October 1, by the 17th District Agricultural Assn. Edmunds was authorized to name his own committee to prepare the exhibit.

The directors of the district met last Thursday night in Grass Valley, and voted to exclude livestock exhibits this year due to inadequacy of facilities. The advertising fund was reduced to $250.

Mrs. Edmunds accompanied her husband to Grass Valley.

PETITION PROTEST PROPOSED SITE OF NEW TAHOE JAIL

TAHOE CITY, June 15—Petitions to Supervisor Jack McFadden of Placer County are to be circulated this week opposing the building of a new Tahoe City jail under the bluff at the extreme north end of the Tahoe Commons and asking that the proposed two-room concrete structure instead be erected in the already excavated location near the Community Hall.

Th petitions being drawn up cite unfavorable accessibility and inadequate sewage drainage at the north site as well as the additional cost. N. R. Mayfield, who contracted the building, said his figures submitted to the supervisors were not figured for the north end location where excavation in the bank will cost approximately one third more.

TWO ARE FINED FOR FISHING AT DAM

For fishing too close to the lower side of the Truckee River Dam at Tahoe City, two men were each fined $25 in the court of Justice Evelyn Bliss of Tahoe City on Monday.

Dan C. Bell of Pleasant Grove, Sutter county, was apprehended by Warden Bill LaMarr on Saturday and Ray L. Eggleston, Sacramento photographer, was apprehended by LaMarr while he was en route to investigate a deer killed on the Truckee-Tahoe highway on Monday morning.

Plans For Summer Are Made At Meeting Of Truckee Mothers Club

The Mothers' Club, sponsored by the Truckee Union P-T. A., met at the Community Church yesterday to form plans for the summer's program.

The members of the Minnehaha Club entertained and acted as hostesses during the afternoon.

Mrs. C. C. Vallow and Mrs. W. Hocker poured tea. A silver offering was taken to contribute to the building fund for the church.

Supervisors Will Reconsider Bids For Truckee Hall

Bids All For Over $40,000 Are Tabled After Meeting

The five bids submitted for construction of the proposed new Veterans' Memorial Building in Truckee were held up by the board of supervisors last Friday at the opening of the offers in Nevada City.

Further consideration will be given the lowest bid of a trifle over $41,000 when the board meets in special session on June 21, it was reported by James McIver, Jr., chairman of the American Legion building committee, who attended the Friday session.

The bids ranged from $41,000 to over $48,000, McIver said, exceeding the allowance of the board by about one-third. The sum of $28,000 had been agreed upon, according to McIver as a top price, but after fully considering the various ramifications the members decided, McIver declared, to fix the limit at $35,000.

This amount, it was believed, might be sufficient if a few of the changes as proposed in the structure are carried out as submitted in alternate bids.

The board is making every effort to cooperate in having the work started this summer if possible. They hope to meet the requirements without applying to the Federal government for financial assistance.

The lowest bid was sent by a San Francisco firm, McIver reported, the only local bid coming from Norman R. Mayfield, Tahoe contractor.

FISH NET FOUND AT MOUTH OF RIVER HELD BY OFFICERS

Anchored with a CCC shovel handle, a fish net 30 feet in length was found Sunday stretched across the mouth of the Little Truckee River by Police Officer Wheeler to Reno who was fishing nearby.

The officer pulled the net from the water and secreted it in the brush before notifying Game Warden William LaMarr and Deputy Sheriff N. F. Dolley.

Several suspects were being questioned, but the culprits have not been found as yet.

92 PRESENT AT LOCAL CHILDREN'S PROGRAM

Ninety-two young people and their friends attended Children's Day exercises on Sunday at the Community Church Sunday School. Mrs. D. D. Guthrie is to be complimented on the excellent response to her well-planned program of song and scripture.

Dudley English presented Miss E. D. Reynolds with a gift in recognition of her work as Sunday School superintendent. Miss Reynolds is leaving Truckee to go east to college and in the fall will assume a post as a member of the faculty of the Grass Valley high school and will be unable to continue as superintendent.

At the close of the program William Englehart, Sr., took several group pictures of the affair to be sent to the religious magazine "The Christian Advocate".

A. R. CURNEEN, WELL KNOWN HERE DIES AS TOOTH PULLED

A. R. Curneen, 45, of Grass Valley, died Sunday of shock following the extraction of his teeth.

Curneen was an unsuccessful candidate for county superintendent of schools at the last primary election, an active member of the Lions club, and of the Native Sons of the Golden West.

Funeral services were held in the Memorial Chapel of the W. R. Jefford and Son Funeral Home on Wednesday morning under the auspices of Quartz Parlor No. 53, NSGW. The burial was in Greenwood Cemetery.

The Grass Valley Lions Club attended the last rites in a body.

CALIFORNIA IS PIVOTAL STATE (by GREELY KOLTS)

There is a maxim old in American politics—as New York goes, so goes the country. Viewed, however, from the actual history of both the Republican and Democratic parties, it might more truly be said that—as California goes, so goes the political trend of the people. As a matter of fact, California has proven a much more reliable political barometer than the State of New York.

In 1876, Tilden carried New York State, but ultimately lost the election to Hayes, which hinged on the six Electoral votes of Louisiana. In 1916, Hughes carried the grand old commonwealth of New York by 110,000 majority but lost the general election to Woodrow Wilson by 23 Electoral votes. Thus we find in two instances that Presidents of the United States have been elected without the political assistance of New York State. We also find that New York State has deserted the Republican party eight times in Presidential elections since 1872, while California has deserted the G. O. P. five times during the above period.

In 1892 Grover Cleveland carried California and again became President of the United States. In 1912 Woodrow Wilson carried California over Taft with a tremendous majority and was elected President. In 1916 Wilson again carried California by a slim majority, and in consequence was again elected President of the United States.

In 1932 and 1936 the electoral vote of California was registered in the Democratic column. Thus we find by strange political coincidence, that with the exception of 1884, when James G. Blaine carried California by a slight margin over Grover Cleveland, who was the first Democratic President elected since 1860, that the vote of California has invariably been cast on the side of the victorious Presidential candidate, as proven by the fact that the Electoral vote of California went to Grover Cleveland in 1892; the Electoral vote of California went to Woodrow Wilson in 1912 and 1916 and also to Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1932 and 1936.

Thus, while the grand old State of California has deserted the Republican party five times in Presidential years since 1872, the fact remains that each time it deserted, the Democratic party was shunted into national political power.

What will the answer be in 1940?

A WORD TO THE BRIDE

To a young couple leaving for their honeymoon, breathless after the ordeal of a ceremony punctuated by the soft sobbing of the bride's family (nobody ever sobs for the groom!), there is nothing to be said. They hear no voices but each others. They are the only inhabitants of an exquisite universe of moonbeams and dream-stuff.

Yet presently, in this realistic old world, the dreaming must give way to practicabilities. The wise bride knows that from now on that gala evenings of chiffon gowns and soft music may come a little less often; that cookbooks and budgets and marketing must also enter her world. And to help her proud young husband get ahead, she learns to stretch the paycheck, to place stability a little ahead of luxury.

Just at first, however, she may not realize how far her new responsibilities extend beyond her home and through the community. It may seem fun to drive to a larger city to shop in huge emporiums. But it isn't wise, for many reasons. First, enterprising hometown merchants, with the advantage of lower rentals than big city shops, fully meet the challenge of metropolitan competition both in quality and price. Second, the value of the newlyweds' home, the security of the bread-winner's job, the future of his business, must be determined by community growth and prosperity. From home spent dollars come the taxes that maintain adequate police and fire protection, improve schools and elevate standards of education.

So, when the bride shops at home, she builds for the future of her own family by contributing to the community.

Every bride, whether she recognizes it or not, has an important role to play in building California.

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

by JOHN W. DUNLAP
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, June 15 (UP)—Barring unforeseen hitches, the Legislature will bustle out of Sacramento around June 17, disgruntled at working a month without pay and faced with the likelihood of coming back in six months for another payless session.

Old timers are perplexed at the 53rd Legislature. When you try to figure up concrete achievements so far, there are mighty few. It is doubtful if any governor has taken such a uniform licking on program legislation as Culbert Olson. The houses, particularly the Assembly, have dawdled along day after day, apparently unperturbed at the lack of paychecks. For example, with 437 items on Tuesday's calendar, the Assembly spent all afternoon on just two bills! The inevitable must happen. Bills will be shot through the hopper as fast as one will know what's what. A big majority will be killed, sight unseen. There will be great confusion, cracking nerves, and a general nightmare as adjournment nears.

After the horse was stolen, the Assembly decided to do something about the mob of lobbyists and visitors who have cluttered up the lobby. A petition was signed by 90 per cent of the membership to require everyone except ex-members and the press to remain outside unless invited in by an Assemblyman. The hurt feelings were tremendous but the maneuver helped considerably to keep the chamber quiet and facilitate business.

The constant hum and din in the Assembly has slowed up business many times and members were often being pigeon-holed by lobbyists behind the rail than attending to business.

The Senate takes all honors for decorum. No one gets on the floor and the scene is more reminiscent of a church or library than a legislative hall.

For once and for all, the alien fishing bill has been refused access to the floor. For the third time, the Assembly voted against withdrawing it from committee, despite support for the bill from the Governor, United States Navy and other groups.

The final vote was 25 to 42 after some members scoffed at the suggestion that "a few tiny fishing boats could be a menace to our great navy."

Increasing rumors of an Olson "purge" of his opponents came out in the open when the Governor plainly showed his disapproval of Senator Peter Myhand, a Democrat from Merced county. It was Myhand who opposed the administration bill to issue $170,000,000 in revenue bonds to provide distribution facilities for power produced at Shasta Dam. The measure passed the Senate but Myhand purposely voted with the majority so he could ask for reconsideration. The vote to reconsider the vote was 19 to 18.

Olson has made several references to the effect that conservatives were hampering his program and finished one of his recent broadcasts with an ad libbed "Ladies and gentlemen, what we need is a new Legislature."

Then there was the subsequent broadcast in which Olson passed out copies in advance, condemning Senator Roy Nielson and Assemblyman Earl Desmond, both of Sacramento, for allegedly sabotaging his budget provision for new construction, particularly a new office building for Sacramento.

The names got widely into print but Olson then deleted the reference over the air and there was considerable confusion. Fourteen hours later the Governor acknowledged the omission of the names and said he was merely shortening his speech. Director of Public Works Frank W. Clark added another version when he said he (Clark) didn't want the names mentioned so he cut them out.

Since there isn't any doubt that Ellis E. Patterson and Hiram Johnson are going to be the principals in next year's race for United States Senator, it's hardly too early to take an advance preview of the general situation.

Patterson definitely is not fooling about his entrance in the contest.

"The only way to win an election is to start early and go after the votes," the Lieutenant Governor told this correspondent. "Of course, Hiram Johnson will be hard to beat. He is a mighty popular man in California. But I have his record and it isn't a very good one. I'll have the Democratic party back of me and I doubt if any other leading contenders will crop up, despite various rumors that the field will be a large one."

Patterson admitted that his biggest fight was to get the Democratic nomination away from Johnson, who has swamped all opposition on all tickets each time he makes the race. Johnson made his big reputation as Governor of California and has been a prominent Senator for many years.

While campaigns are hardly comparable, Patterson intends using the same tactics for Senator that won him the post of Lieutenant Governor. Long before other candidates had made up their minds, Patterson announced his candidacy and began ringing doorbells up and down the state. He had little money but his friends stuck with him and Patterson emerged from the mob as Democratic nominee. He rode into office with Democrats Culbert Olson (Governor) and Sheridan Downey (U. S. Senator).

Patterson encountered a hostile Senate and was shorn of his traditional powers but has proven a capable presiding officer in the upper house. He keeps busy filling speaking engagements all over the state.

Patterson is overlooking no bets in his plans. He has moved his residence from non-political King City to populous Los Angeles. He first claim to a potential million or more votes from the $30 Every Thursday pension ranks and spoke recently at the "Ham and Eggs" mass meeting in Sacramento. He even capitalized on a recent "free speech" issue in Imperial Valley by flying South and

Tahoe Ramblings

By Anne B. Anderson

The new trustees for the Lake Valley School District, elected June 2, are Mrs. John Keller and Charles Young.

A new fire truck has been added to the equipment at the Eldorado Campground near Bijou.

The Greyhound Bus Line, which has taken over the Pierce Arrow Stage line at the south end of the Lake, will make Meek's Bay a stop over on the route around the Lake.

N. N. Schmitt of Tahoe Park and Sacramento last week bought a new speed boat for his lakeshore home.

Major A. P. Crist of the Tahoe Realty Co. this week sold his home at Tahoe Pines to Paul Delos of San Francisco. The Crists have purchased the Russell home in Lake Forest Unit 3 and are moving there.

this week.

Mrs. William Loughlin has opened a grocery store at King's Beach.

A convention of 150 members of the Teamster's Union made a trip to Lake Tahoe from Sacramento last Sunday, June 4, where they made their headquarters at Camp Richardson. The trip was made by Greyhound bus. The men were members of the union were from 11 western states and British Columbia.

School vacations in the Tahoe schools will begin June 23 and will end about August 1. All schools will be on the same schedule with a vacation in summer and winter. Regular daily classes in music are being given by Otto Fox, musical director at Placer Union High School.

The CCC camp at Rubicon Point is now open with around 160 boys busy constructing new camp sites, laying water lines and making other improvements under the supervision of E. F. Carlander, superintendent.

School trustees elected at the north end of the Lake were A. E. Sorenson, Mrs. Dorothy O'Brien and Louis Kaetli.

"Doc" Henderson of Oakland, a member of the California Highway Patrol on the Bay Bridge, with his new wife, spent part of the honeymoon at the south end Wye where the young couple, who were married in Reno Saturday, were entertained by friends.

Hundreds of trees have been removed from the Lakeshore Highway by the State Highway Commission along the Tahoe-Placerville route and from Emerald Bay to Meyers Station Wye. Weak and dead trees on property adjoining the highway are also being removed by state crews so that there will be no danger of them falling in the winter and blocking traffic as many of them were so tall they would cross the road if they fell.

Nevada State Highway crews are working on the old Kingsbury grade on the southwest corner of the Lake leading from Lakeside to Minden. They are widening, clearing out trees and generally improving.

The county road branching from a point near Chamber's Lodge and leading back to Rubicon Springs and westward to Wentworth, is slated for much improvement during the summer, reports the National Automobile Club. The present road from the Lake to Rubicon is exceedingly

CARPENTERS' UNION AFFAIR AT CALVADA REPORTED A SUCCESS

MEER'S BAY, June 15—The Carpenters' Local had their banquet and dance at Calvada Lodge Saturday night, June 3. A four-piece orchestra, Bob Abbey and his Boys, furnished the music for the evening, with Jerry Sacramento acting as Master of Ceremonies.

All floor entertainment was furnished by local talent. Little Ruby Misenheimer and Jackie Crawford gave forth with a couple of tap numbers, Vivian Cordt and Joe Callarina went through the contortions of a jitterbug show, Miss Marie Flores, featured entertainer at the Calvada Club, sang a few numbers, Leo Carde and Miss Marie Brooks giving out with more vocals. Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Rayburn were the hosts to the very successful affair.

John Hesse, Walter McAbee and Lee Garner are due a great deal of credit for their work as the entertainment committee. Garner was ill and unable to attend the function but Mrs. Garner was a very able substitute for her husband.

TAHOE BOYS CLUB FORMED BY TEJAS EDWARDS

A Pioneer Club for boys was organized at Tahoe last week by Tejas Edwards. This organization is modeled after the Boy Scouts but requires no uniforms. The Tahoe chapter, called the Trail Blazers, meets each Saturday at 1:30 p.m.

steep, very narrow and winding. During the past it has rarely been used by motor vehicles. Upon completion of scheduled improvements, this road will provide a direct and popular route for fishermen bound to the back country from the Lake Tahoe side.

Patrons of the fashionable Prusso's Forest Inn, that distinctive dining resort near Ward Creek, will be pleased to learn that the formal opening date has been set for Saturday, June 24th, with dinner being served from 7 p.m. on.

The gracious hostess, Mrs. Van Nessa Prusso, will be on hand to welcome guests and assure perfect accommodations. She will be assisted by her daughter, Theda.

Her staff of workers will again include the three employees who have been with Prusso's since it first opened in 1936. Adolf Marchetti who has enjoyed wandering over Europe all winter, Vincent Brusa and Dominic Paglio. In the kitchen handling the tasty and distinctive menus, for which Prusso's is justly noted, will be Gino Martini, former Bohemian Club chef.

Primo Ferrari, formerly in charge of the cocktail lounge and bar and now at San Francisco's Dante Club, will probably be replaced by a new man this year. He is marrying on June 19th in Reno, incidentally. The ladies will be pleased to know that the little parasol favors so popular last summer, will be continued for the season.

The same excellent quality of food and beverages will be maintained with charcoal broiled steaks and chops, frogs, chicken and trout featured on the daily menu.

The dining room will open daily at 10:30 with luncheon served at 11. Dinner will be from 5 p.m. to 10, with closing at 11. The special Italian dinners, so popular last year, will be featured on the Wednesday evening menus after July 1st. Each Sunday turkey dinner will head the bill of fare.

Prusso's Terrace Blue, which derives its name from the white-fringed, cornflower blue awnings which cover the rock porches, will be opened for summer service July 1st.

The consistent success of Prusso's Forest Inn is due, in the main, to the gracious and solicitous attention of its hosts, the excellent distinctive cuisine and service at moderate prices.

Supervisors Charles Geisendorfer and Jack McFadden of Placer County were visitors at Tahoe on Friday and Saturday where they inspected the road improvement work being done by the county in the Rubicon district and discussed plans for the new jail which is to be built on the Tahoe Common soon.

New Construction

A new breakwater at the home of the Gustave Knecht family at Brockway is under way this week by Contractor Norman R. Mayfield of Tahoe City.

A new two story, eight room house at Tahoe Vista, with built in garage and apartment above, is under construction for Charles Vanderploeg, superintendent of building construction for F. A. Kilner and Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCarthy of Oakland opened their new home in Ridgewood Tract on Monday, June 5, for the season. This lakeshore home was completed last fall by F. A. Kilner and Co.

E. J. Crawford of Tahoe Vista has recently completed an addition to his home.

A large project is under way by the Forest Service at the Meyers Ranger Station on the Placerville to Tahoe highway in the Eldorado National Forest where improvements totaling $45,000 are planned for the next two years. These include a new ranger's office and residence, a $10,000 warehouse, and a garage to house fire trucks and equipment and a ten-man barracks to provide housing for emergency fire crews and CCC workers as necessary. Also included in the project, a strictly Forest Service undertaking, is the landscaping of five acres surrounding the station.

WITH YOUR ASSEMBLYMAN, THURMAN

(by Assemblyman Allen G. Thurman)

With adjournment date set for next Tuesday, June 20th, the Assembly cleared its calendar of unfinished business on Monday of this week. The last day which assembly bills could be considered, included several revenue measures the economy group in the lower house consistently voted against most of the revenue measures as well as against special appropriation bills. In voting against increases in taxes the economy group could not consistently vote for increased expenditures.

On Tuesday of this week the Assembly began its consideration of bills originating in the Senate while the upper house began consideration of bills which originated in the lower house.

Among the important Senate bills before the Assembly this week was SB 1259, the Central Valley Power Act, introduced by Senator A. L. Pierovich of Amador County. This bill has resulted in more administration pressure upon Assemblymen for a favorable vote than any other bill including the budget. Members of the lower house have even stated that they have been offered favorable consideration of projects in their districts if they would vote in favor of the bill. The writer knows this to be a fact and during the debate on the bill it is possible that reference may be made to this pressure.

The long promised road connecting the counties of Alpine and Mono may become a reality if Director of Public Works Frank W. Clark can find the funds with which to finance it. A committee of supervisors and two district attorneys from Alpine and Mono Counties, accompanied by Senators Jesse Mayo, Charles Brown, A. L. Pierovich and your assemblyman, met with the director and highway engineers last Friday and were accorded every consideration including the promise that a survey of the proposed road to ascertain the possible cost would be made in the near future.

Mrs. Bernice Dangberg, chairman of the board of supervisors of Alpine County, presented the case before Clark and assured him that her county would be glad to allocate part of the gas tax money now received by the county toward the construction of the road.

The proposed new road would extend from Markleeville to Coleville a distance of approximately eighteen miles, and would enable motorists from Los Angeles and the southern part of the state, as well as residents of Mono and Inyo Counties, to enter Alpine County without having to cover some forty or fifty miles through the State of Nevada.

Following a suggestion by Senator Mayo that the highway department make a survey of the proposed road as the only means of ascertaining what the cost might be, Director Clark agreed to such a procedure. The proposed new road would not only benefit Alpine, Mono and Inyo counties but Amador, Calaveras and El Dorado as well, all of which are in the Sixth Assembly District.

The county seats of Alpine and Mono Counties are the only two in the state which have no connecting highway. The proposed road was included in the primary state system some twenty years ago but funds have never been allocated for its construction.

ready for occupancy on June 15. One side will be occupied by one of the Loynd Drug Stores, the other will house a coffee shop, with 15 hotel rooms above, under the management of Bob Ganzhorn, formerly of Buckhorn Inn. A beauty salon will also be apart of the upstairs section under Mrs. Cecil Davis, formerly at Tahoe Tavern.

Two Small Fires On South End Forest Quickly Are Subdued By Fighters

TAHOE CITY, June 15— Two small fires in the Eldorado National Forest, on the south end of Lake Tahoe, were under control by rangers and helpers within an hour or so after starting. On May 30 a fire broke out in the brush near the Stateline Garage. Trucks and crews responded and the fire, which started at 11:07 a.m., was under control at square feet was burned over. It is assumed to have been caused by hikers' carelessness.

On June 5 fire broke out in the sawdust pile at the old Pierce saw mill. The burned area covered 150 square feet and the fire was under control within 2 hours. The cause of the fire is unknown.

George Hatfield, former Republican lieutenant governor, who startled the politicians by inviting his Democratic successor, Ellis E. Patterson, to be the speaker of the day at the annual picnic of Stevinson Post of the American Legion, apparently believes in the quip that variety is the spice of life. For as a counter attraction to Rabble Rouser Patterson at the Legion's picnic on June 18, Mr. Hatfield will present the girl who keeps cool with fans. Yes, you guess it—Sally Rand!

Willis Allen, the "ham and eggs" promoter, who soared to fame with his promise of "30 Every Thursday", was sued the other day by several former women employees—for failing to pay the minimum wage. What the moral of that story may be, we would not suggest. You can write your own ending.

Our secret operative reports that Richard ("Dick") Olson—the Governor's son and private secretary—has no real intention of running for U. S. Senator against the veteran warrior, Hiram W. Johnson, despite reports to the contrary. Dick's candidacy, so the story goes, was suggested just as publicity. Actually the Olson-family considers Senator Johnson unbeatable—and has so advised some of the Democratic leaders.

The steam back of all these potential candidates against Senator Johnson, according to our Eastern observer, comes direct from the White House. President Roosevelt rates Hiram (who once gave him powerful support) as one of his severest critics and most dangerous opponents. But California Democrats, close to the picture, think Mr. Roosevelt had better forget it. Hiram may have aged a bit, but he can still lick his weight in wild cats.

Who in 1940?

THOMAS E. DEWEY
for PRESIDENT

Incorporation papers for the first Thomas E. Dewey for President Club of California were received this week by former State Senator George Rochester, Franklyn Potter and Jerry Mayo, well known Los Angeles attorneys, who are incorporators of the new Dewey movement for California and there is no doubt but that the popular movement will spread quickly over the entire west.

Thomas E. Dewey, the fearless, fighting D. A. of New York, has in some manner caught the fancy of the American people and it will be a difficult task to defeat him for the Republican Presidential nomination in 1940.

Thomas E. Dewey was born at Owosso, Mich., March 24, 1902. His grandfather, Thomas H. Dewey, was the founder of the Owosso Times, one of the early Republican papers of Michigan and also one of the founders of the Republican party at Jackson, Mich., in 1854. Tom Dewey, as he is familiarly known, is the nephew of Admiral George Dewey and therefore may be said to come from old-fashioned, rock-ribbed Republican stock.

He graduated from Michigan University in 1923 and from Columbia University in 1925.

From 1931 to 1933 he served as chief assistant U. S. District Attorney of New York. In 1934 was appointed special assistant U. S. Attorney General for the prosecution of tax proceedings in the famous Federal case against C. E. Mitchell, New York millionaire. He then prosecuted Waxley Gordon, a famous New York racketeer which attracted national attention.

In 1935 Dewey was appointed special prosecutor by the New York Bar Association for the prosecution and removal of Municipal Judge Harold Kunstler, charged with malfeasance in office. In 1936 was again appointed special prosecutor for the investigation of organized crime in New York, serving in that capacity until elected District Attorney of New York in 1937.

Dewey is an Episcopalean, a very convincing talker, with a pleasing personality and New York Republicans are confident that he will carry the state with its 47 electoral votes, if nominated in 1940.

CORDELL HULL, JOHN GARNER
for PRESIDENT

Mr. Garner's announcement that he will seek the Democratic Presidential nomination next year turns a rumor into a fact.

It also serves to further emphasize

Hans Georg Will Operate Ski Class

A summer ski school on the roof-top of North America, overlooking the desert, has been started by Hans Georg, holder of the international skiing honors and world records, reports the National Automobile Club. The school will operate on the high slopes of Mt. Whitney where snow remains all summer. Pack trains will transport ski enthusiasts from the end of the motor road at Mt. Whitney Portal to the edge of the all-year snow fields. Rental ski equipment may be secured at the Outpost Camp of Chrysler and Cook who operate the pack trains.

the split in the ranks of the majority party. Mr. Garner has a solid following among the relatively conservative Democrats—which include the influential Southern bloc almost 100 per cent—and he is heartily disliked by the more extreme New Dealers. He will probably go to the convention with enough votes to make it tough for any candidate he opposes.

At the same time, talk of nominating Secretary Hull, as a sort of compromise candidate, grows. Many feel Mr. Hull would be the strongest candidate the Democrats could put in the field.
